GAME PREVIEW:

Coming Off Season-Opening Win, Blue Hens Face Tough Task with Trip to FBS Power Virginia Tech Saturday

BLACKSBURG, Va. -- Things will become more difficult in a hurry for the University of Delaware football squad this week as the Blue Hens, coming off a 22-3 win over in-state foe Delaware State last Thursday, step up a level and travel to Lane Stadium in Blacksburg, Va. to take on first-time opponent Virginia Tech at 3:35 p.m. on Saturday.

The Danny Rocco Era got off on the right track with the win over Delaware State as the Blue Hen defense was stingy all evening and forced three turnovers and UD came up with just enough offense to keep the Hornets at bay.

Delaware will be looking to snap a seven-game losing streak to FBS opponents dating back to a win over Navy in 2007, a season in which the Blue Hens advanced to the NCAA FCS title game. In the process, the Hens will also be looking to become the second CAA team this season - and fifth FCS program overall - to knock off a higher level opponent.

#22/21 Virginia Tech, which went 10-4 last year and won the ACC Coastal Division title, got its 2017 season off on a high note Sunday night with a 31-24 win over #22 West Virginia in Landover, Md.

DELAWARE-VIRGINIA TECH SERIES

This week's game marks the first-ever meeting between the two schools in football.

DELAWARE VS. NCAA FBS OPPONENTS

Delaware will move up a division this week as the Blue Hens, members of the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), head south to take on Virginia Tech of the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

Delaware is 78-68-4 (.533) all-time vs. upper division NCAA opponents but will be looking to snap a seven-game losing streak and down an upper division foe for the first time since a 59-52 win at Navy in 2007 when current Baltimore Ravens starting quarterback Joe Flacco led the Blue Hen charge.

The Blue Hens last played an FBS foe last year when Delaware dropped a 38-21 decision at Wake Forest last Sept. 17.

University of Delaware Director of Athletics and Recreation Services Chrissi Rawak announced on Dec. 14, 2016 that Danny Rocco, who enjoyed outstanding success at NCAA Division I FCS members Liberty University and University of Richmond over the last decade, had been selected to lead the Blue Hens as head football coach.

Rocco, 57, who led the University of Richmond to back-to-back 10-win seasons and three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, becomes just the 23rd head coach in Delaware's 125-season history and just the sixth head coach since 1940.

"I'm thrilled that Danny Rocco will be the new head coach for the Fighting Blue Hens," said UD President Dennis Assanis. "Like all of us at UD, Danny is committed to excellence in everything he does. He brings significant coaching experience at both the collegiate and professional level. Most importantly, Danny is dedicated to the success of our student-athletes, both on the field and in the classroom. We know he will build a powerful team of players and coaches and take UD Football into a strong and winning future."

"We welcome Coach Rocco and his family to our Blue Hen Football family," said Rawak. "This is an exciting day for the University of Delaware, our football program, our student-athletes, and everyone who loves and supports Blue Hen football. During our search we wanted to find someone who had demonstrated outstanding success not only on the field but in building young men as leaders, citizens, and achievers. In Coach Rocco we found the perfect fit and someone who is committed to excellence in every area. We are excited to see the direction he takes us under his leadership. His impact will be felt immediately."

A veteran of 33 seasons as a football coach, including the last 11 as a head coach at the NCAA Division I FCS level, Rocco has found nothing but success. He has never posted a losing season and owns a career record of 90-42 (.682), including a 10-4 mark this past fall when Richmond went 5-3 in the Colonial Athletic Association and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the third straight year.

The No. 12 ranked Spiders defeated No. 17 North Carolina A&T 39-10 in the opening round and rallied to down No. 8 North Dakota 27-24 on the road in the second round before falling at No. 3 Eastern Washington in the quarterfinals this past Saturday.

"It is with great enthusiasm that I accept the head football coaching position at the University of Delaware," said Rocco. "I am very excited to take on this challenge, recognizing that I have full and total support from President Assanis and AD Chrissi Rawak. I have always had an appreciation for the history and tradition of Delaware Football and I am highly motivated to return Delaware to its winning ways and to a position of national prominence."

A native of Huntingdon, Pa. and a 1984 graduate of Wake Forest University, Rocco inherits a program that has won six national championships, finished as national runner-up five times, made 20 NCAA Tournament appearances, and captured 16 conference championships.

Rocco transformed the Spiders back into a national power during his five-year tenure. He inherited a team that went 3-8 in 2011 and led the 2012 squad to a five-win turnaround with an 8-3 overall record and a share of the CAA title.

He went on to lead Richmond to a five-year record of 43-22 that included three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a berth in the semifinals in 2015 and a trip to the quarterfinals this past season.

He was named the Touchdown Club of Richmond Coach of the Year in both 2012 and 2015 and was a finalist for the FCS Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year award both of those seasons.

During his 11 seasons as a head coach (five at Richmond, six at Liberty), he has been a National Coach of the Year Finalist five times, and has won six conference championships and four conference Coach of the Year honors.

He has coached 156 all-conference honorees and 30 student-athletes who garnered All-American honors, including four Richmond players in 2015 - Brian Brown, Jacobi Green, David Jones and Nick Ritcher; and three in 2016 - Brown, Griffin Trau, and Winston Craig.

Twelve different players under Rocco's tutelage have gone on to earn professional contracts and his teams have finished in the final FCS Top-25 poll in eight of the past nine seasons, including finishing No. 3 in 2015 and No. 12 this past season.

During his time with the Spiders, Richmond defeated 14 nationally-ranked opponents, including a victory over then-No.3 James Madison during the 2015 season when ESPN's College GameDay was in Harrisonburg, Va.

Rocco becomes only the third man in Colonial Athletic Association Football (formerly Yankee Conference and Atlantic 10 Conference) history to serve as head coach at two different institutions. Jim Reid coached at former CAA member Massachusetts in 1986-91 before moving on to serve as head coach at Richmond in 1995-2003. Current University of Michigan defensive coordinator Don Brown was head coach at Northeastern in 2000-03 before moving over to UMass in 2004-08.

At Liberty, Rocco made an immediate impact, taking over a program that had gone 1-10 in 2005 and building the Flames into a Big South Conference power. He led his first team to a 6-5 record (the largest turnaround of any FCS program that season) and guided the squad to Big South Conference Championship four times in six seasons.

He posted an overall record of 47-20 (26-5 in league play) and was named Big South Coach of the Year four times. He was a finalist for the national Eddie Robinson Award and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award in each of the final three seasons in Lynchburg. Liberty finished the last four years ranked inside the Top 25 in both major FCS polls.

Before becoming a head coach, Rocco spent 23 seasons at the NCAA Division I Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and National Football League levels.

In January of 2016, Rocco was elected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees.

DELAWARE VS. THE ACC

Delaware will be playing only its fifth Atlantic Coast Conference opponent this week vs. first-time foe Virginia Tech. The Blue Hens have previously faced former ACC member Maryland 10 times, played Pittsburgh in 2014, faced North Carolina in 2015, and matched up against Wake Forest twice. The Blue Hens are 5-8-1 all-time vs. the ACC.

Delaware is 5-4-1 all-time vs. Maryland since an initial meeting in 1899 and last faced the Terrapins in 2008 when the Blue Hens dropped a 14-7 verdict in College Park. The last time the Hens downed Maryland was in 1905, well before the ACC came into existence. The Blue Hens also faced Wake Forest in the early days of the program, falling to the Demon Deacons 7-0 in Wilmington, Del. in 1932 before last season's rematch. Delaware fell to Pitt 62-0 in the season opener in 2014 in Pittsburgh, Pa. and dropped a 41-14 decision to North Carolina in Chapel Hill in 2015.

FCS VS. FBS

As one would expect, an FCS program moving up to play an FBS opponent is a daunting task, but certainly not impossible. FCS programs have four wins over FBS opponents this season (4-42 overall record/.087), including wins by James Madison over East Carolina, Tennessee State over Georgia State, Liberty over Baylor, and Howard over UNLV last week.

CAA Football has posted 35 victories over FBS foes in its history, including James Madison's win over East Carolina last week and wins by Richmond over Virginia (37-20) and Albany over Buffalo (22-16) last year.

CAA teams are 1-5 vs. FBS programs this season. In addition to JMU's win, Elon lost to Toledo, Rhode Island fell vs. Central Michigan, Stony Brook fell victim to South Florida, Old Dominion defeated Albany, and Virginia knocked off William & Mary in last week's action.

LAST WEEK FOR DELAWARE

NEWARK, Del. -- The University of Delaware football team opened the Danny Rocco Era with a 22-3 victory over in-state foe Delaware State Thursday night at Delaware Stadium.

Senior wide receiver Diante Cherry led the Blue Hens (1-0), making four catches for 83 yards and a touchdown. The Lancaster, Pa., native also had a 19-yard acrobatic run off a reverse for another score. The 102 all-purpose yards earned Cherry the Nate Beasley MVP Award as the game's outstanding player.

The Blue Hens offense finished the opening night performance by racking up 432 yards of total offense, but it was the defense that truly shined.

That unit, which returned all but one starter from last year's team, held Delaware State (0-1) to just 224 yards of total offense, and to 3-13 success on third downs. Delaware allowed just a 24-yard field goal late in the first half after stopping the Hornets on the one-yard line.

The Blue Hens defense forced three turnovers, recovering a pair of fumbles before sealing the win with an interception by redshirt freshman Nijel Hill late in the fourth quarter.

Blue Hens redshirt junior quarterback Joe Walker went 13 of 26 for a career-high 192 yards and the touchdown to Cherry while redshirt junior running back Thomas Jefferson ran for 102 yards on 19 carries.

LAST WEEK FOR VIRGINIA TECH

LANDOVER, Maryland (AP) - Virginia Tech made FedEx Field feel like Lane Stadium Northeast and got to bring that Black Diamond Trophy back to Blacksburg for the first time in more than a decade.

Oh, and the Hokies' new quarterback looks like a keeper, too.

DELAWARE FOOTBALL ON THE RADIO

All University of Delaware football games, home and away, will once again be broadcast live on WSDS 94.7 FM and on the UD student station WVUD 91.3 FM. The 2017 season marks the 19th year of Delaware football's association with WSDS and iHeart Radio. WSDS, the only station with statewide coverage in Delaware, will once again serve as the flagship station for Blue Hen football with coverage throughout Delaware and parts of Maryland, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey. Games can also be heard on the internet at www.iheart.com/live/461. Scott Klatzkin, a Delaware graduate, will serve in his sixth year as play by play announcer. Also part of the on-air broadcast team will be color commentator Matt Janus; and first-year sideline reporter Cory Nidoh; Klatzkin will serve as co-host of the hour-long Danny Rocco Show each Wednesday during the season at 7 p.m. The first show will be broadcast on Wednesday, Aug. 30. The broadcast will be live at Klondike Kate's Restaurant in Newark and will also be available on the web. WVUD 91.3 will also broadcast all Delaware games in 2017. Games can also be heard on the internet at www.wvud.org.

Josh Jackson passed for 235 yards, ran for 101 and accounted for two touchdowns in his first start for Virginia Tech, and the No. 21 Hokies made a last-second stand to beat No. 22 West Virginia 31-24 on Sunday night.

The 52nd meeting between the Appalachian region rivals was the first since 2005. It ended up being a classic. The Hokies rushed the field after their defense held the Mountaineers out of the end zone on two last plays from the 15, and their fans screamed along to Metallica's "Enter Sandman" to celebrate.

Josh Jackson's 46-yard keeper up the middle - which ended with him taking a hard low hit - set up Travon McMillian's 3-yard touchdown run that put Virginia Tech up 31-24 with 6:30 left.

TOUCHDOWN CLUB MOST VALUABLE PLAYER AWARDS VS. DELAWARE STATE

OFFENSIVE MVP – Thomas Jefferson (Jr., RB, Passaic Tech/Prospect Park, N.J.)...ran 19 times for a game-high 102 yards to lead Delaware to the 22-3 win over Delaware State on Thursday...collected his sixth career 100-yard rushing effort...averaged 5.4 yards per carry.

DEFENSIVE – Ray Jones (Jr., SS, Hodgson Vo-Tech HS/Wilmington, Del.)...led a Delaware defense that allowed only a field goal to Delaware State...defense allowed just 11 first downs, 224 total yards, and forced three turnovers...DSU converted just 3 of 13 third downs...Jones led the Hens with six tackles - one for loss - and broke up a pass.

REAL. LIVE. ACTUAL BLUE HENS AT DELAWARE FOOTBALL HOME GAMES THIS FALL

University of Delaware football fans who have never seen an actual Blue Hen in person will get their chance this fall as the University will have Blue Hens on display during home games as part of their pre-game tailgate festivities.

The birds will be on site in the Anchor Buick GMC Fan Zone two hours before the games begin.

Having the Blue Hens at the games is the result of an interdisciplinary collaboration between UD Athletics and the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources (CANR). Chrisi Rawak, director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation Services, and CANR Dean Mark Rieger initially talked about the possibility of having a live mascot in December 2016, and the two teams have been working together ever since to bring the concept to fruition. Athletics and CANR have worked together on everything from game day logistics to coop design to blue hen color selection.

A trailer, designed by Dan Hougentogler, research associate in the Department of Animal and Food Sciences (ANFS), has been constructed to house the Hens for the pre-game activities and is equipped with a mock up football field and goal posts, as well as fans to keep the birds cool.

The Blue Hen flock at UD features descendants of birds that were originally donated by S. Hallock du Pont in the 1960s for teaching and research, as well as three newer birds that were donated in 2016 by Wesley Towers, a 1964 UD graduate who majored in animal and poultry health during his time at UD and went on to serve as the Delaware state veterinarian for over 37 years. He is also a former member of the University's Board of Trustees.

Bob Alphin, senior instructor in ANFS and manager of the Allen Laboratory, explained that this is a great opportunity to provide educational outreach to the Delaware community on the importance of the poultry industry to the state, as well as educate them on the history and biology of the Blue Hens.

Alphin stressed that the safety and health of the birds is of the utmost importance.

"The trailer has a nice design with good air flow, with fans, we'll provide water and feed, along with plenty of space for the birds. I don't expect that we'll have any issues but we are prepared just in case," said Alphin.

Three student interns — Anna Desmond, Melanie Lopez and Meaghan Young — from the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources have been working with the birds since June and will be on site at the games to help educate the public and to keep an eye on the birds.

Those who attend the first two home games (Aug. 31 vs. Delaware State and Sept. 16 vs. Cornell) will have the opportunity to suggest names for the Blue Hens, as the interns on hand will collect naming submissions before the game.

While there will most likely be five birds total at the games, there have been two male birds that have been chosen to represent the Blue Hens as they are the biggest birds in the flock and look the most like iconic Blue Hens.

Lopez said that it is easy to distinguish the two Blue Hens from one another and that they both have their own unique personalities.

"One is more energetic and vocal and then the other is quieter but has his bursts where he moves quick all around," said Lopez.

Young added that "One is a little bit more curious. As soon as you walk in, he'll kind of go up and check you out and then the other one just chills in the back a little bit."

Winning names will be announced on Sept. 30 when Delaware faces James Madison at Delaware Stadium.

BLUE HENS PICKED NO. 5 IN CAA POLL; THREE EARN ALL-CAA HONORS

Danny Rocco is confident that his 2017 squad is ready to turn the corner and return Delaware to relevance in the Colonial Athletic Association race. Looks like his fellow head coaches agree. The league held its annual CAA Football Media Day on July 25 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md. and released its preseason head coaches/media relations director poll and all-conference team.

The Blue Hens were well represented as Delaware earned a No. 5 pick out of 12 teams in the league standings and three seniors - linebacker Charles Bell, defensive tackle Bilal Nichols, and center Brody Kern - earned All-CAA honors.

James Madison, the defending NCAA FCS national champion and league title holder that visits Delaware Stadium Sept 30, was the prohibitive preseason favorite, earning 21 first place votes. Richmond earned the other three first place votes followed by Villanova, New Hampshire, Delaware, Albany, William & Mary, Stony Brook, Maine, Towson, Elon, and Rhode Island. Richmond, New Hampshire, and Villanova also advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2016.

"We are going to go to work and do everything we can to better our program, better our product, and prepare ourselves to win and have success on a daily basis," said Rocco. "When all is said and done, the thing you want to be is relevant in November. I believe we have a great opportunity to be relevant come November. Hopefully this team is ready to accept that challenge."

SENSATIONAL SIX SELECTED AS 2017 DELAWARE FOOTBALL CAPTAINS

The top student-athlete leadership unit for the 2017 University of Delaware football squad stands at six.

New Blue Hens head coach Danny Rocco announced last week that a trio of standout players - senior defensive tackle Bilal Nichols, senior tight end/fullback Kyle Yocum, and junior quarterback Joe Walker - have been named co-captains. The trio joins the three captains - senior center Brody Kern, senior linebacker Charles Bell, and junior linebacker Troy Reeder - who were announced at the Blue-White Spring Game in May.

The six captains is the highest total ever in Delaware history, surpassing the previous high of five during the 2011 season and four each during the 1996, 2008, 2014, and 2016 campaigns.

"At the end of camp, we went back and revisited our captains," said Rocco. "This is something I have been doing for a while. We had a few in the summer, and as we head into the end of camp, it gives guys the opportunity to take over some leadership roles. It is one of the greatest honors you can receive as a student-athlete and one of those things that stays with you for a long time. It gives more people the opportunity to work towards having a leadership role on the team and being recognized for that."

Bell is serving as captain for the second straight year and becomes just the sixth player in UD history to serve in that capacity during multiple seasons.

John Scholato (1961-62), Marc Sydnor (1990-91), Matt Marcorelle (2007-08-09-10), Paul Worrilow (2011-12), and Andrew Pierce (2012-13) are the only other UD players to serve as captain for more than one season.

Bell, Kern, Nichols, and Reeder all earned All-Colonial Athletic Association honors a year ago with Bell, Kern, and Nichols being named to the CAA preseason all-conference team.

BLUE HEN HEAD COACHING DEBUTS

Danny Rocco made his debut as head coach at the University of Delaware last week vs. Delaware State, becoming just the sixth full-time coach since 1940 to head the sidelines for the Blue Hens. Below are some of the recent debuts for Delaware head coaches.

Bill Murray

- lost at Hampden Sydney, 7-0 Oct. 5, 1940. A second quarter scoring pass from Walt Sprye to Syd Weed clinched the win for Hampden Sydney.

David Nelson

- defeated Lehigh 7-0 under the lights of Wilmington (Del.) Ball Park Sept. 22, 1951. The Hens won despite completing just one pass and being outgained 254-167 in total yards. A first quarter touchdown run by Joe Scarcia was all the Hens needed to post the victory.

Tubby Raymond

- defeated Hofstra 35-13 Sept. 24, 1966 before 10,140 fans at Delaware Stadium. Delaware rushed for 255 total yards and held the Dutchmen to just 65 total yards and eight first downs. Quarterback Frank Linzenbold threw for 118 yards and rushed for 136 yards while Stu Green rushed for 79 yards and three touchdowns to lead the way.

K.C. Keeler

- defeated No. 22 Georgia Southern 22-19 on Aug. 29, 2002 before 19,056 fans at Delaware Stadium. Antawn Jenkins scored two touchdowns, including a 45-yard scamper in the opening five minutes of the game. QB Andy Hall completed 7 of 14 passes for 99 yards and rushed for 88 yards and one score.

Dave Brock

- defeated Jacksonville (Fla.) 51-35 on Aug. 29, 2013 at Delaware Stadium as the Blue Hens scored 24 unanswered points to overcome an early two-touchdown deficit. Delaware piled up a whopping 611 yards of total offense - the highest for a UD team since 2000 - while the defense held the Dolphins to just 224 total yards and negative 37 yards rushing, the third lowest total allowed in UD history.

DELAWARE IN SEASON OPENERS

University of Delaware Football opened its 126th season since 1889 last week vs. in-state foe Delaware State. Delaware had won two straight season openers - having defeated Jacksonville (Fla.) 51-35 in 2013 and knocking off NCAA Division II West Chester (Pa.) 41-21 during the 2012 campaign - before falling at Pitt 62-0 in 2014 in Pittsburgh, Pa. and dropping a season-opening 20-14 decision at home to Jacksonville (Fla.) in 2015. Delaware bounced back with a 56-14 season-opening win over Delaware State at Delaware Stadium in 2016 and with last week's 22-3 victory over those same Hornets.

Delaware has now won 9 of its last 13 season openers, falling only to NCAA FBS members Navy 40-17 in 2011, Maryland (14-7) in 2008, and Pitt (62-0) in 2014, and to FCS foe Jacksonville (20-14) during that span. Delaware has now opened the season at home 12 times since 2001.

DELAWARE TOUGH IN HOME OPENERS

Delaware is now 53-12 (.815) in home openers since Delaware Stadium opened in 1952 with the Blue Hens having won 10 straight prior to the 2015 setback to Jacksonville.

Still, the Hens have won 25 of their last 28 home debuts in these friendly confines.

DELAWARE VS. NON-LEAGUE FOES AT HOME

Delaware will take on two 2017 non-league opponent this season at Delaware Stadium. Delaware defeated MEAC entry Delaware State 22-3 on Aug. 31 and will host Ivy League member Cornell on Sept. 16 before opening league play.

The Blue Hens have enjoyed outstanding success vs. non-league opponents, especially at home where Delaware has currently won 25 of its last 27 contests against non-league foes. The Hens had won 22 straight games before falling to Sacred Heart by a 10-7 on Oct. 4, 2014. The only other setback during that span was the 20-14 loss to Jacksonville in 2015.

The Blue Hens had not lost to a non-league opponent at home since a 17-10 setback to former Northeast Conference member (and now CAA member) Albany on Sept. 16, 2006. That win streak included NCAA Tournament victories over Delaware State in 2007 and over Lehigh and Georgia Southern in 2010.

DELAWARE SEASON TICKET SALES SURGE

Enthusiasm surrounding the start of the 2017 Delaware football season and a new era under head coach Danny Rocco has resulted in a surge of season ticket sales this summer.

Delaware had doubled its total of new season tickets (900) from last year. In addition, Blue Hen football season ticket holders renewed their seats at a rate of 88 percent.

Both totals are the highest since the 2010 season when Delaware advanced to the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision title game. The increase in new season tickets sold also represents the first growth in that area since that 2010 season.

Delaware's season ticket total for 2017 currently stands at approximately 5,800.

BLUE HENS AT DELAWARE STADIUM

Delaware boasts one of the top home-field advantages in all of college football. Not only do Blue Hen fans turn out to Delaware Stadium each week - helping UD become the only NCAA FCS team in the nation to average 20,000 or more fans per regular season home game 12 seasons between 1999-2010 - they see consistently winning football.

Delaware has won 45 of its last 67 home games (.672) and is 302-103-4 (.743) in 65 seasons all-time at Delaware Stadium, including a mark of 20-5 with eighth straight wins in the post-season. Delaware claimed its 300th win all-time at Delaware Stadium in the 2016 season opener Sept. 1 vs. Delaware State with a 56-14 victory.

The Hens, who went 2-3 at home in 2016, posted a winning or .500 season at home nine straight years between 2007-15, and in all but three seasons since 1984.

Delaware has ranked in the top 10 nationally for home attendance among FCS programs each of the last 21 seasons since 1996. The Hens ranked No. 8 in NCAA FCS in average home attendance in 2015, averaging 16,478 fans per game, an increase of 652 from the previous season.

HENS EXTEND IMPRESSIVE SCORING STREAK AT DELAWARE STADIUM

A rarity occurred Aug. 30, 2014 when Delaware was shutout in a season-opening 62-0 loss at the hands of host Pittsburgh. The shutout loss snapped Delaware's streak of 220 straight games scoring a point - a streak that dated all the way back to a 27-0 setback to Villanova back on Sept. 14, 1996.

It also marked the first time Delaware had been shutout on opening day since a 21-0 loss to Lehigh in the 1950 opener while also snapping a streak of 99 straight road games scoring a point. The 220-game streak was the longest among CAA teams.

That rarity happened again on Oct. 10, 2015 when Delaware suffered a 20-0 shutout loss at Rhode Island, snapping streaks of 211 straight games scoring vs. FCS opponents and 156 straight games scoring in conference games. Both streaks dated back to the Villanova loss in 1996. The Blue Hens were also shutout by a 19-0 score at Towson on Oct. 31.

Still, one impressive scoring streak continues to live on for the Blue Hens. Delaware has not been held off the scoreboard at home at Delaware Stadium since suffering a 24-0 setback to Holy Cross back on Nov. 12, 1983 - a streak of 223 straight games.

Delaware has been shutout just five times in its last 398 games since 1983 and just seven times in its last 498 games since 1975. In CAA play, the Hens have been shutout just three times in 248 games since joining the Yankee Conference (which became the Atlantic 10 and then CAA) in 1986 and have never been shutout in 124 conference home games at Delaware Stadium.

- over for more -

NOW THAT'S CONSISTENCY

Since 1990, only three schools that have competed at the NCAA FCS level during that entire time period have won at least four games every single season. Delaware, Montana, and Northern Iowa are the members of this exclusive club of consistent winners. Eastern Kentucky dropped out of the club following a 3-8 season in 2016.

The last time the Blue Hens failed to win at least four games in a season came in 1967 when Delaware went 2-7 under Hall of Fame head coach Tubby Raymond. For Montana, the last time it did not reach four wins was 1985 and for Northern Iowa it was 1978.

BLUE HENS REACH MILESTONE CAA WIN

Delaware picked up win No. 150 all-time in Colonial Athletic Association (previously the Yankee Conference and Atlantic 10 Conference) play in the 20-6 win vs. Towson on Oct. 29, 2016. The Hens have now put together a record of 151-98 in league games, good for a winning percentage of .606 that leads all current members.

Delaware became just the fifth league program to reach the 150-win plateau and joined the likes of former member Massachusetts (236-139-4, .628 in 1947-2011), New Hampshire (235-88-10, .553, 1947-Present); Maine (197-227-7, .468, 1947-Present); and former member Connecticut (158-115-10, .576, 1947-99).

DELAWARE'S CAA SUCCESS

Delaware has enjoyed great success in conference play since joining the Yankee Conference (now the Colonial Athletic Association) back in 1986. The Blue Hens, who have won outright or shared nine league titles during that time, own the best record in league games among all current CAA teams that have played more than two seasons, posting a record of 151-98, good for a .606 winning percentage.

Delaware's .606 winning percentage is tops among active CAA squads, surpassing Villanova (142-93, .604), James Madison (117-78, .600), William & Mary (109-85, .562), and New Hampshire (234-187-10, .553) in the top five.

Old Dominion owns the top spot all-time with a .813 (13-3) win percentage but the Monarchs played just two seasons in 2011-12. Massachusetts went 236-139-4 (.628) in conference play before leaving for the MAC.

DELAWARE AND THE NFL

Delaware football continues to make a big impact in the National Football League.

Entering the week, seven former Blue Hen standouts - the ninth highest total of any NCAA FCS program - were on active NFL rosters.

The group includes 14-year veteran and two-time All-Pro FS Mike Adams and OC Gino Gradkowski with Carolina; former Super Bowl MVP QB Joe Flacco and TE Nick Boyle with Baltimore; LB Paul Worilow with Detroit; DT Zach Kerr with Denver; and DB Marcus Burley with Cleveland. OT Connor Bozick was released by Detroit over the weekend.

Special notice goes to former Blue Hen WR/RB Brett Veach, who earlier this summer was named the general manager of the Kansas City Chiefs. The Chiefs' offensive coordinator is former Blue Hen All-American QB Matt Nagy.

Flacco led Baltimore to a Super Bowl victory and was named the game's MVP following the 2012 season. He will start for the Ravens for the 10th straight season this fall. Worilow led the Atlanta Falcons in tackles as a rookie free agent in 2013, did so again in 2014 and 2015, and was a key special teams player for the team's Super Bowl run in 2016. Adams led Denver to the Super Bowl in 2013 and Indianapolis to the AFC title game in 2014. He earned All-Pro honors in both 2014 and 2015.

The seven players ranks Delaware No. 2 among all CAA schools and tied for No. 9 among all NCAA FCS programs.

MORE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE TIES

Current Blue Hen juniors Kareem Williams and defensive end John Nassib also have some strong ties to the National Football League as both have brothers playing on Sundays. William's brother Andre, a 2013 Heisman Trophy finalist at Boston College, is a fourth-year running back and played two seasons with the New York Giants before joining the San Diego/Los Angeles Chargers in 2016.

Nassib has two brothers playing the NFL. Ryan played quarterback for the Giants in 2013-15 before joining the New Orleans Saints this fall. Brother, Carl, is a second-year defensive lineman for the Cleveland Brown.

DELAWARE TO AIR THREE HOME GAMES ON TV FOR 2017 SEASON

University of Delaware Athletics has agreements with CSN Philadelphia (will become NBC Sports Philadelphia on Oct. 2), CSN Mid Atlantic (will become NBC Sports Washington on Oct. 2), SportsNet New York (SNY), and COZI TV, Delmarva's NBC affiliate in Rehoboth Beach, to broadcast Blue Hen football home games from Delaware Stadium during the upcoming 2017 season.

Delaware will produce three games for live broadcast: Sept. 30 vs. James Madison, Oct. 14 vs. William & Mary, and Nov. 11 vs. Albany.

All three games will air live at 3:30 p.m. on CSN Philadelphia, COZI TV, and SNY. (The Nov. 11 vs. Albany will air on a one hour tape delay on SNY.)

Additionally, Delaware has agreed to collaborate with James Madison University to produce the Sept. 30 match up. This game will air live on CSN Mid Atlantic via CSN+ serving 3.4 million homes throughout the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia as well as on CSN Philadelphia, SNY, and COZI TV, bringing the Blue Hens and Dukes to the homes of over 20 million fans.

The agreements will place the excitement of Delaware football into the homes of over six million viewers in the Philadelphia area, Southern New Jersey and Delaware via CSN and CSN Mid Atlantic. SNY reaches 12 million nationally and is available to viewers throughout New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and northeastern Pennsylvania, and nationally on DIRECTV, Verizon FiOS, Comcast Cable, and AT&T U-Verse. COZI TV can be seen throughout the Delmarva area in southern Delaware and eastern Maryland.

"This is a wonderful moment for the University of Delaware, Delaware Athletics and Delaware Football" said Director of Athletics and Recreation Services Chrissi Rawak. "We are excited for the opportunity to highlight the great things happening on our campus to over 20 million households."

Jet Media will produce the televised games on behalf of Delaware. The University was represented by Collegiate Sports Management Group during the negotiation of these agreements.

In addition to this three-game deal, Delaware football will also be featured three other times on linear or digital broadcasts this fall (see note below). Delaware's Sept. 9 game at Virginia Tech will air as part of the Atlantic Coast Conference Network Extra package. The Blue Hens will also appear twice as part of the Colonial Athletic Association's new "Game of the Week" partnership with CBS Sports Digital announced earlier this month – Richmond on Oct. 21 and at Maine on Nov. 4.

With the exception of Oct. 21 vs Richmond, all of Delaware's home games will also be streamed live on bluehens.com.

CAA FOOTBALL PARTNERS WITH CBS SPORTS DIGITAL TO STREAM GAME OF THE WEEK; BLUE HENS TO APPEAR TWICE IN '17

University of Delaware Football will appear twice this fall as part of the new Colonial Athletic Association Game of the Week digital broadcast.

The CAA announced in August that it had signed an agreement with CBS Sports Digital to stream a "Game of the Week" for football and men's basketball throughout the next two seasons. Games will be available for free on College Sports Live online (collegesportslive.com) and on the College Sports Live mobile app.

As part of the 12-game football package in 2017, Delaware will be featured during its Oct. 21 home game vs. Richmond and its Nov. 4 road game at Maine to be played in Portland.

College Sports Live is a streaming service from CBS Sports Digital offering subscribers the ability to watch and listen to more than 10,000 live events from top universities and conferences across the country. It is the most comprehensive collegiate sports streaming service available covering more than 30 sports.

"The CAA is extremely pleased to be able to enter into this partnership with CBS Sports Digital," CAA Commissioner Joe D'Antonio said. "We have seen a dramatic shift in the way our fans are watching CAA sporting events. Through this relationship, we hope to continue delivering to our fan base top quality digital programming that will highlight the competitiveness of our Conference as well as the talent of our student-athletes."

The CAA Football "Game of the Week" schedule includes 12 contests and features 11 league match-ups. The slate kicks off on Thursday, August 31 with the Battle for the Brice-Cowell Musket between long-time rivals Maine and New Hampshire. All 12 CAA Football members will appear at least once in the package.

Scott Sudikoff will handle the play-by-play duties for all 12 football telecasts, while former NFL player Brandon Noble will work as the analyst. Noble, a collegiate standout at Penn State, played four seasons (1999-2002) at defensive tackle for the Dallas Cowboys and one for the Washington Redskins (2003).

In addition to the football coverage, College Sports Live will feature a "Game of the Week" package in CAA men's basketball that includes 12-15 contests. College Sports Live will also offer coverage of conference championship action in women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, softball and volleyball.

SMART GUYS!

For the third straight year, the University of Delaware football squad has placed a record number of student-athletes on the Colonial Athletic Association Football Academic All-Conference team in 2016.

Delaware placed 34 student-athletes on the 2016 squad, surpassing the record of 30 set in 2015, which had broken the previous mark of 28 in 2014.

The 34 Blue Hens - nearly 40 percent of the team's roster - were among the 388 student-athletes who were honored among the 12 schools. To be eligible for Academic All-Conference honors, student-athletes must hold a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher.

All 12 CAA Football schools had at least 19 players receive Academic All-Conference accolades. There were 24 players who made both the all-conference team and the academic all-conference squad, including Delaware's Troy Reeder.

"We are certainly excited to be so well represented on the CAA Academic All-Conference team," said Delaware head coach Danny Rocco. "Academic success is at the core of our mission and our goals will always center around being outstanding not only on the field and in the community but in the classroom as well. Awards like this validate our commitment to academic excellence and we are proud of these student-athletes and the hard work they have put in to be successful in this area."

Earning CAA Academic All-Conference honors for Delaware were:

Chichi Amachi; Michael Caffrey; Daulton Gregory; Alphaeus Hanson; K.C. Hinton; Jalen Kindle; James Kretkowski; Christian Lohin; Sal Mauro; Noah McCardell; John Nassib; Brandon Nixon; Vinny Papale; Christian Portale; Frank Raggo; Jalen Randolph; Blake Rankin; Brent Reed;

Bryan Reed; Colby Reeder; Troy Reeder; Mitchell Sgro; Tim Sheridan; Eric Skogmo; Colin Smyth; Will Stephenson; Peter Thistle; Ryan Torzsa; Collin Wallish; Armen Ware; Tommy Wilmoth; Blaine Woodson; Kyle Yocum; and Dillon Zimmerman.

HENS AND NORTH DAKOTA STATE TO BEGIN SERIES IN 2018

The University of Delaware and North Dakota State University agreed to a two-game contract for football games during the 2018 and 2019 seasons on Aug. 10, 2016.

NDSU will host the Blue Hens in the season opener Sept. 1, 2018, at Gate City Bank Field at the Fargodome. Delaware will host the Bison at Delaware Stadium in Newark on Sept. 14, 2019.

These will be the first two meetings between Missouri Valley Conference leader North Dakota State and Delaware, which plays in the Colonial Athletic Association.

Delaware won the FCS national championship in 2003 with a 15-1 record as a member of the Atlantic 10. The Blue Hens joined the CAA in 2007 and were national runners-up in 2007 and 2010. NDSU won five straight national titles in 2011-15. One of the two teams has played in 8 of the last 14 FCS national championship games.

North Dakota State will be Delaware's first Missouri Valley Conference opponent since hosting South Dakota State on Sept. 11, 2010.

NOTES, MILESTONES, AND RANDOM FACTS TO PONDER....

- Delaware junior running back Kareem Williams reached an impressive milestone in the season opener vs. Delaware State as he rushed for 67 yards on 14 carries. On his final carry of the night, he went over the 1,000-yard mark for his career and now has 1,001. He is the 59th player in school history to reach the coveted rushing milestone.

- Junior running back Thomas Jefferson notched his sixth career 100-yard rushing game with his 102-yard outing against Delaware State in Thursday's opener. He now has 1,692 career yards rushing to rank No. 27 all-time for the Blue Hens. He needs just 102 more yards to crack the all-time Top 20.

- Another Blue Hen player nearing a milestone this week is senior wide receiver Diante Cherry. Cherry, who caught four passes for 83 yards and scored two touchdowns vs. Delaware State, has now caught 96 passes for 991 yards for his career. He needs just four receptions to become the 19th UD player to reach 100 and needs only 9 yards to become the 29th Blue Hen to reach the 1,000-yard plateau.

- Junior kicker Frank Raggo booted a pair of field goals in the win over Delaware State, converting from 21 and 25 yards out. He also connected on both of his extra point attempts. He has now made 39 straight conversions since 2015 (UD record is 67) and has kicked at least one field goal in seven straight games, two shy of the UD record of nine set by Don O'Brien in 1987-88 and by Jon Striefsky 2007.

- Speaking of kickers...Delaware sophomore Jake Roth continued to show a strong foot on kickoffs for the Blue Hens. Of his five kickoffs vs. Delaware State, four of them went through the end zone for a touchback. Over his first two seasons as the Hens' kickoff specialist, Roth has booted 28 touchbacks in 54 attempts, good for a mark of 51.8 percent.

- Delaware committed just 40 penalties for 356 total yards during the 2016 season, an average of just 3.64 penalties and 32.36 penalty yards per game. All four of those totals led all NCAA FCS schools. The penalties were the lowest total for Delaware since the 1969 season. Delaware had six penalties for 65 yards in the opener vs. Delaware State.

- The Blue Hens had 15 interceptions during the 2016 season and ranked No. 21 in the nation and No. 6 in the CAA in that defensive category. Delaware picked off just seven passes the entire 2015 season and just five during the entire 2014 campaign. The 15 interceptions were the most for a Delaware team since the 2011 squad had 18.

- Several Delaware players are expected to continue impressive starting streaks vs. Virginia Tech this Saturday. Senior defensive tackle Blaine Woodson has started 34 straight games since the 2015 season, senior center Brody Kern has started 29 straight games, and defensive back Nasir Adderley, linebacker Charles Bell, and linebacker Anthony Jackson have each started 23 straight games for their careers.

A BLUE HEN IN THE WHITE HOUSE...AND AT DELAWARE STADIUM

When former U.S. President Barack Obama and running mate, former Delaware Senator Joe Biden, won the 2008 presidential election, it was big news. And even bigger news for the citizens of Delaware and those affiliated with UD. In November, 2012, Obama and Biden were elected for another four-year term to lead the country.

A 1965 graduate of the University of Delaware with degrees in history and political science, Biden played on the Blue Hen freshman football team in 1961 under head coach Scotty Duncan but did not play varsity football after that. Biden, a member of the UD Wall of Fame and an ardent Delaware football fan, considered himself "a half-baked halfback" during his brief UD football career.

Biden made his first visit to Delaware Stadium as Vice-President on Saturday, Oct. 9, 2009 as he attended the Maine game and sat with then UD President Patrick Harker and current New Jersey Governor and 2016 Presidential candidate Chris Christie (also a UD graduate) throughout the entire contest.

He made another visit to Delaware Stadium in 2010 when he attended Delaware's 16-3 NCAA quarterfinal win over New Hampshire on Dec. 10. He also attended the Hens' 2010 national championship game in Frisco, Tex. with Christie and former Delaware Gov. Jack Markell.

Biden met with then head coach K.C. Keeler and members of the team on Sept. 19, 2008 when Biden's plane was parked on the same tarmac as the Delaware charter at New Castle County (Del.) prior to its trip to Furman. Biden later made an appearance at the Blue Hens' game vs. Maine at Delaware Stadium on Oct. 11, 2008.

2017 GAME BY GAME RECAPS

#rv DELAWARE22
Delaware State3
August 31, 2017 • Delaware Stadium (18,040)

NEWARK, Del. -- The Delaware football team opened the Danny Rocco Era on a high note as a stingy Blue Hens defense forced three turnovers to key a 22-3 victory over Delaware State.

Senior wide receiver Diante Cherry led the Blue Hens (1-0), making four catches for 83 yards and a touchdown and also had a 19-yard acrobatic run off a reverse for another score. The 102 all-purpose yards earned Cherry the Nate Beasley MVP Award as the game's outstanding player.

The Blue Hens offense finished the opening night performance by racking up 432 yards of total offense, but it was the defense that truly shined.

That unit, which returned all but one starter from last year's team, held Delaware State (0-1) to just 224 yards of total offense, and to 3-13 success on third downs.

Delaware allowed just a 24-yard field goal late in the first half after stopping the Hornets on the one-yard line.

The Blue Hens defense forced three turnovers, recovering a pair of fumbles before sealing the win with an interception by redshirt freshman Nijuel Hill late in the fourth quarter.

Blue Hens quarterback Joe Walker went 13 of 26 for a career-high 192 yards and the touchdown to Cherry while redshirt junior running back Thomas Jefferson ran for 102 yards on 19 carries for his sixth career 100-yard effort.

Rocco won his first game as head coach at Delaware and improved to 91-42 all-time as a head coach. He served as head coach at Liberty University in 2006-11 and at the University of Richmond in 2012-16. He became the fifth straight Delaware coach to win his UD coaching debut. The team presented him with the game ball in the locker room.

Delaware has now defeated downstate opponent Delaware State in all eight meetings since the first game in 2007 with an average winning margin of 27 points per game.

Delaware kicker Frank Raggo converted field goals of 21 and 25 yards, the second giving Delaware an 8-0 lead late in the second quarter. He has now converted 10 of his last 13 attempts.
